Children's Hospital Los Angeles is a special place - a place where children have been cared for, and cured, for more than 100 years. From a modest beginning in a two-story house in Los Angeles, the hospital has become one of the world's top pediatric facilities, acknowledged throughout the United States and around the world for its leadership in pediatric and adolescent health.

Children's Hospital Los Angeles is able to offer the optimum in multidisciplinary care, with 33 pediatric subspecialties and dozens of special services for children and families. The hospital is a private, non-profit teaching hospital that has had an affiliation with the Keck School of Medicine of the University of Southern California for more than 72 years.
